DETAILED ACTION

Amendment

1. Acknowledgement is made of Amendment filed 7 November 2003.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-3 and 5-27 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The record of prior art fails to teach a method enabling a merchant to establish a merchant account for processing credit-card transactions whereby the merchant may begin processing transactions upon submitting an on-line merchant account application, the method including the steps of: at the application processing entity, maintaining a database of available active merchant identification numbers (MIDs) that may be used to uniquely identify a merchant, terminal identification numbers (TIDs) that may be used to uniquely identify a particular location from which the merchant will be processing credit card transactions, and gateway identification numbers (GIDs) that uniquely identify various network gateways through which credit card transactions may be routed through a computer network to a transaction processing center; at the application processing entity, selecting and assigning a MID, TID, and GID to the merchant account from said plurality of available MIDs, TIDs and GIDs stored in said database.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
